The OEA Foundation offers thirty three scholarships for sons or daughters of Omaha Education Association members and who are graduating seniors planning to pursue a post-secondary education.

A very important consideration will be the involvement of the parent in the OEA for the twelve OEA Foundation Presidents' Scholarships.

Involvement of a parent in the OEA will also be considered for the other fourteen scholarships. There is no restriction as to the field of study. Your character and behavior should be outstanding and should positively reflect a credit to your teachers and to the OEA Foundation.
